SAVED 4 MISHELLE

Little Sheres,

Well, we have had a lot of fun soph-year together. Driver's Ed was really exciting, sitting there for 5 long, boring hrs. Snowbowl was a blast. Going to the top on the chairlift, crashing, throwing snow balls, taking action crash pictures, playing follow the leader, seeing Platoon, etc.... Remember the time we went to Snowbowl and it snowed all day?? THAT was a freezing cold day, 1/2 of it we spent warming up in the lodge. Oh, what about the Powerlines w/ Chad and his loud radio! Spring break at the Ramada w/ all of our supplies. That was the best! Edye's, out all night w/ slapers, Simos, BK, Camelback Mt., William at the gas station, Butler Park, my yogart, chocalate w/ sprinkles, Tokyo Express, McD's, Audi, mom's car, b-ball games, etc.... Those have all been fun times. Oh wait what about our songs "Set me Free, Shook me All Night Long, who made who, Finer things, Violent Femmes Jam on It, Double Fresh, Brass Monkey, Outfield, Madonna, etc.... Just think how much fun we are going to have our JR. year when we can legally go off campus for lunch. We are going to have so much fun together in our cars going skiing and to parties. We will have to play Thumper again soon, that was so much fun. That was fun when we went shopping and ate pizza at Christown, remember that? You ARE such a REBEL!!! I am really glad that we have become such good friends. I ♡ U lots. I sure am going to miss you this summer. I'll send you post cards from the "ISLANDS" and bring you something - I want you to come w/ me, I'll miss you. Spring break w/ Katie, Mel, Siobhan, Chad, Chris, Ben, and the Manipulator (Dave). Oh what a night that was! Sleeping in my car 1/2 the night. The golf tournment, all those drinks and what pigs we were when we all ate our dinner. The nickname we gave you at the hotel room - Biscuit Baker - I ♡ it. So, Shere's who's your new love Dave, Bonzie, Heath??? Or is there someone new?

SAVED 4 KAREN!

Oh, isn't our microwave popcorn the greatest snack? I can't wait till you get your [redacted] Jeep cherokee, I am definitely going to drive it, right? "Oh golly wholly" we sure have raised some hell. This year has been so much fun. I wish I would have gone w/ you to U2 that was a bummer. Remember how scared I was to go off for lunch and drive, how scared I was to leave mass, etc...? You are such a rebel but I love it b/c it makes our life more exciting.

Butter Park, Slopers
Brophy boys - BK - boondockers, parties

Hey Sheee, - ok s'm sowie, I mean Hey Biscuit Baker,
(I know how much you like that name!)

Can you believe sophomore year is almost over?! Well, I guess when your having fun time flies! Sheresa s'm so glad I got to know you better this year cuz we've had sooo much fun rebelling our way through the year! Good thing you've got a lot of guts cuz that was 1/2 the fun! I'll never forget the times you, Michelle, and I have had ditching and going off-campus for lunch - so far no one has squealled on us - must be our lucky year! Do you member the time we got permission from our parents to ditch cuz we didn't have our homework done! Gezz!! There's hell no way I'm doing that again - we missed 5 pages of notes and only I got a 15 out of 82 on the test the next day cuz you suddenly felt nauseous - Please!, ya big faker - what a cop out on life - I'm so disappointed - I should have thought of that! Oh well, hell it was funny now that I think about it, even though I'll probably get a D in the class because of it! Gezz! Do you member that time some senior told Lory she saw us taking joy-rides in the parking lot at Mc-e-dees! (That was your idea!) How embarrassing! Oh yah, and spring break at the Ramada - hell - that was really fun too! All that pop-gosh it was pretty good but we should give some credit to William our friendly helper! We deffinately are going to make spring break a tradition - (don't I (we) have the best ideas!) Well, listen babe, it is babe isn't it! Ha! I love that! (For the 1 millionth time) anyway, it may seem like the fun is coming to an end but - There's hell no way! It's just begun! Thanks for the fun times you're real sweetie and I love you even though you love to critize me! A/A.

Love Ya Lots, Lee P.S. Long live the Biscuit Baker!!.

Keep Out

May 1987

Dear Diary,

The year is finally over, my blue plaid skirt is buried in the back of the closet with its nacho stains and missing threads. Every English literary term has vanished from my mind, to be replaced by thoughts of summer.

Last night I went to a party and saw many of my "one-day crushes" and it brought back so many memories. I'll always remember the football game when Brophy actually scored and discovering my "Jungle Love" at Homecoming's Amazon Adventure.

Oh well, there's always Burger King on Friday nights!

Love,

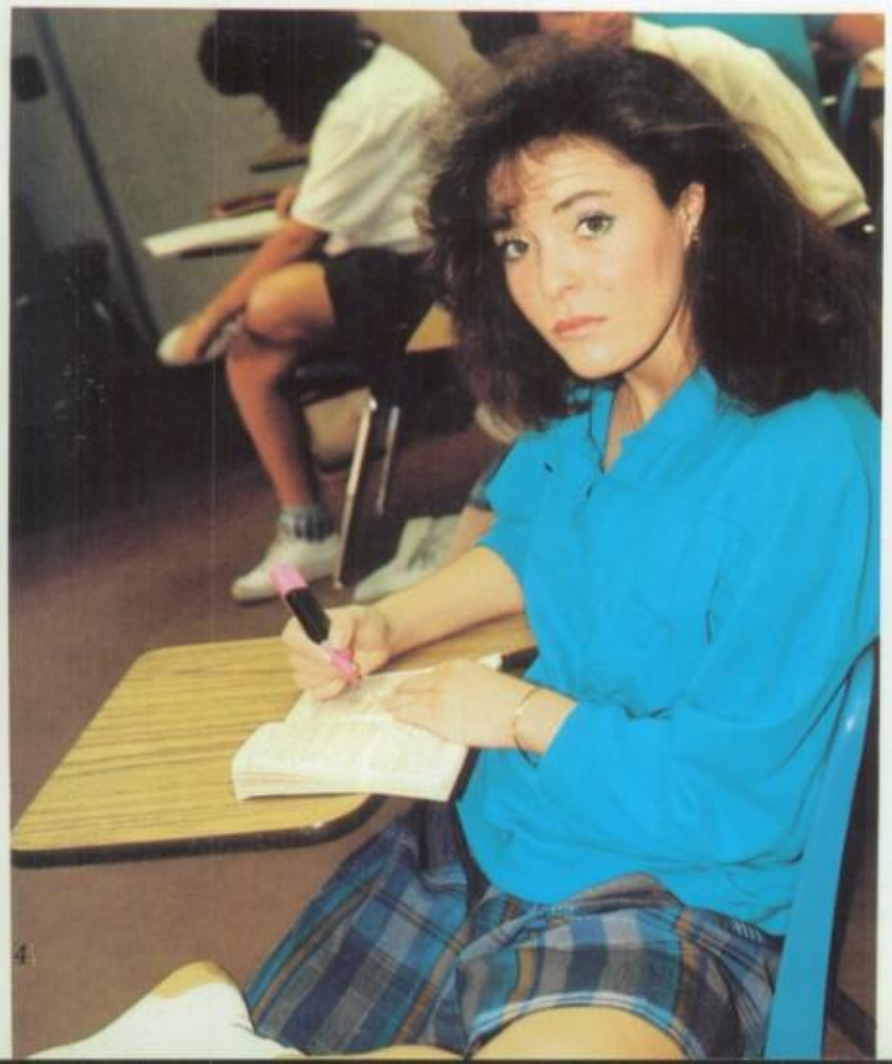
ME

Some Seniors reliving their Freshmen fantasies.

C'mon girls hold that pose!!! (Stephanie Kasen and Trisha Korwes)

Lunchtime? At Brophy? Sophomores?

Staring at that gorgeous New Junior, Stephanie Moore and Monica DiVito wish that they could be just like her!



Returning from lunch Rachel White and Amy Towell are persuaded by a yearbook shutterbug to pose for a "quick-pic."

◄ FACT: Tara Glasser proves that one out of every ten Xavierites actually read their English books.

Frosh for sale!!! Dependable, Charming, "Handy" and answers by the name of Kim Weiland.

Heh, Heh!! Carrie Clifton, Christy Hodges, Katie Waters, Katy Kenny and Sue Carter, laugh now but grades come out in ten minutes!

May 1987

Dear Diary,

When I was a Freshman, Senior year seemed so far away, now it has already come and gone. It's hard to believe that it was actually 9 months ago when I was initiating the Frosh into my school. It's even harder to believe that I was once in their shoes!

Here I am, four years later remembering all the good times: the week before each Christmas dance when I could finally say, "I have a date." Prom night with the guy of my dreams, and cheering on the Broncos at all the games.

Senior year was by far the most exciting year in high school, but along with the fun came pressure! Bringing up my GPA after three years of taking it easy was a bit more difficult than I had expected. Most of my extra spending money went to paying SAT late fees, and college applications looked more like Mrs. Partridge's final exams.

Well, that's all over now. I'm entering college and on my own at last. There's only one thing I haven't figured out yet — How to dispose of my Beautiful uniform. Should I shred it or burn it?!! Love,

ME

November, 1986

Dear Diary,

I should probably be reading my WUTHERING HEIGHTS CLIFFS right now, but I haven't written in you for awhile! I got my hair cut in a BOBB last week at the POWER LINES. It looks real SPECIAL!! Kinda like that lady on SANTA BARBARA. I feel kinda sick right now — maybe it was the SOY BURGERS from MCDONALD'S and all the COOKIES-N-CREAM ice cream I ate today? Oh rad — DANGER ZONE is on MTV. Speaking of danger zones — I think MR. CHAMBERS caught me speeding in my new RED MUSTANG CONVERTIBLE over at BROPHY today. But I had to speed to get over to my CULTS CLASS! I should have took my time, 'cause my teacher collected our homework. It's the fifth time this week I've said " . . . WHAT HOMEWORK?" I need to go to P.V. MALL to buy some new CLINIQUE make-up and GUESS SWEATERS! I don't know what I should do tonight — go to BURGER KING, go see STAND BY ME, or stay home and watch ALF and PAINT MY NAILS. Or I could sit in my room and gaze at my poster of BRUCE WILLIS while I listen to the KEY and drink my DIET COKE. I also have to decide what to do over X-MAS VACATION. I can go to TELLURIDE or to CALIFORNIA and look at USC. SENIORS sure have a lot of important decisions to make!

Love,

ME

Dear Diary,

Thank goodness Junior year is finally over — I can't believe I actually survived it! Reading ten chapters of that oh-so-exciting book every night and typing up those endless essays! But, as I think about it, I guess the year was actually a lot of fun!! I'll never forget going to McDonald's at lunch and racing down Camelback (not really mom!) to get back to class in time! And also the privilege of having the pom line dance with their faces towards me during rallies. And not having to wait an hour for mom to pick me up after school, but instead driving right home with an extra hour to do my homework! (Yeah!) And then there were those exciting Friday nights spent looking for parties until curfew. Hey, I guess I shouldn't make fun of them, since that's when I met . . . (I won't mention any names Diary, in case someone should happen to read this!) Thinking back on all of these things kinda makes me wish that Junior year wouldn't end, except now I have Senior year to look forward to! And then . . ., well, I guess I'll just concentrate on one year at a time!!!

Love,
ME

November, 1986

Dear Diary,

Guess what! Today's MY BIRTHDAY!! My friends kidnapped me before the FOOTBALL GAME and made me over with about five bottles of FINAL NET and all of my COVERGIRL make-up. So pretty! All I could say was "OH MY GOD!!" They took me out for MEXICAN food at TACO BELL and then we went to the game. After the game, we went out for ice cream (I got COOKIES-N-CREAM of course!) and then to the MIDNIGHT MOVIE — we saw TOP GUN. My friends gave me a GQ magazine, a ROMANCE NOVEL, the B-52'S TAPE, a box of FRUIT LOOPS cereal, and some GUM. Mom and Dad took me shopping at P.V. MALL after school today. I got to buy whatever I wanted — well not the PORSCHE. I got a RED GUESS SWEATER and a pet RABBIT. They are also taking me to PURGATORY for an awesome SKIING weekend. We'll leave next FRIDAY morning. That means I'll miss THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS and MOONLIGHTING — Sorry BRUCE WILLIS and CYBIL SHEPHERD! Oh — the perfect way to end my Birthday — KZZP is playing WALK LIKE AN EGYPTIAN!!

Love,

ME

Dear Diary,

I can hardly believe that I'm halfway through with high school! Just think, next year I'll be an upperclassman. I'll actually be able to go off-campus for lunch! And I'll be considered a "somebody" — no longer an underclassman "nobody!" Now that more and more of my friends are getting their licenses, I no longer have to take Tico or bribe rides off Seniors! Sophomore year was an experience! We sure had spirit and the rowdier the better! I'm so glad that I became such good friends with the people I met last year and I will never forget all the great times we had together! Like going to Homecoming and the Christmas dance and scamming on each other's dates, and ending up trading boyfriends! And then there was the Disneyland trip and ski trips. (so rad!) And blowing off our homework on Thursday nights so we could go to the basketball games! I know next year is going to be hard, but not to worry Diary — there's still a whole summer ahead of me, and who knows what will happen?!!!

ME

November, 1986

Dear Diary,

I have been eating so much lately!! It all started at breakfast when I polished off a box of CAP'N KRUNCH. Then for lunch we went to BURGER KING and I got FRENCH FRIES and a DIET COKE. And after school we went and got COOKIES-N-CREAM ice cream and GUMMI BEARS. But then again, my favorite thing to do after school is EAT! — so I shouldn't be surprised! But we did exercise — we went DUDE-SKATING! Then we went shopping at the BILTMORE, cause I needed to buy some BLACK GUESS SWEATS to wear to the FOOTBALL GAME this FRIDAY nite. I heard of a PARTY in SAN DIEGO to go to, so I'm gonna use my favorite excuse for missing curfew — "I HAD TO DRIVE VERY SLOW SO THAT I WOULDN'T GET IN AN ACCIDENT ON THE WAY HOME — THERE'S LOTS OF TRAFFIC AT FIVE IN THE MORNING!!" I should probably get a job — maybe SELLING ICE CREAM — if I'm gonna get that MUSTANG and go to USD for college! The "nerd" called me and asked me to go to the RUN DMC concert with him, but I told him that MY DOG DIED!, and that I had to bury it. (too bad the "nerd" doesn't look like NICHOLAS CAGE!) Anyway, he started to cry, and I said, "CHILL BABE! — I gotta go watch THE ALL NEW DATING GAME and read my ANATOMY book." After I talked to him, I brushed my teeth with CLOSE-UP, so now I'm ready for bed! What a busy day!

Love,

ME

Dear Diary,

Gosh, I can't believe that today was the last day of my first year in high school! But here I am, summer again, time to vegetate with all my new friends. It seems like I've know them forever! I have to admit that freshman year wasn't as scary as I though it would be! It was actually pretty fun! — Except for Initiation Week — that was too embarrassing for words!! When I'm a Senior, I'm gonna be so nice to the new Frosh! (well-maybe not!!) The frosh mixer kind of made up for Initiation though! And then there was Homecoming, which was a real "Adventure!!" I think we all agreed that the Christmas dance topped it all! Unfortunately, semester exams (another new experience) were the following week! Even the exams couldn't make me reconsider going to Xavier though! I love the feeling that I'm part of one big, crazy family. (So what if they all wear th same clothes to school!) And the best thing is that I have a feeling th

Dear Diary,

Today after school, I went over to BROPHY and scammed a little. Then I ate lunch at JACK-IN-THE-BOX and took the BUS home from the CENTRAL AND CAMELBACK bus stop. When I finally got home, I watched GUIDING LIGHT and read my new SEVENTEEN magazine while I ate a bag of M & M'S. (oh yeah — I also had some MINT CHOCOLATE CHIP ice cream) Oh cool — TRUE BLUE is playing on KZZP! I think I'll SLEEP now, so that I'm not tired tonight. We're going to ED DEBEVIC'S and to see TOP GUN (TOM CRUISE — very hot!) I'm sure we'll get FROZEN YOGURT afterwards — yum!! Oh, I almost forgot. I read my ROMANTIC NOVEL last night, and I didn't have time to do my Algebra homework, so in class I just said, "I FORGOT IT." — my teacher just looked at me with a "YOU'RE TOO GAY" look on her face — guess I can't blame her. I can't wait for CHRISTMAS VACATION! (CHRISTMAS DANCE) I think we're going to CALIFORNIA for part of it — I'm so excited!!!

"You didn't seriously think that we teachers ate at the snack bar, did ya?"

"Tap, Tap — Anything alive in there?," wonders Mrs. Unale.

"Need I say more?," grunts Father John.

"I can't believe this is happening to me," thinks Rose Wass as Miss McRaith hands her a D-slip.

May 1987

Dear Diary,

Today we teachers held our annual end of the school year freedom celebration-preceded of course by our annual "red pen" ceremony. You remember from last year, don't you Diary, how each year at the end of the school year, we teachers gather with our collection of red pens we've used for grading (whether they still write or not) and after appropriate (but unprintable) comments, Package all our red pens and send them off to surprised and unsuspecting nations who have a shortage of red pens. It gives us comfort through the summer months, to know that somewhere in a far off land, some eager (?) students, whose winter is our summer, are having their papers decorated with the prehistoric cave dwelling-like drawings that only teachers can make. Their papers end up glowing and blinking like a neon rainbow.

I've locked up my room for the last time, and given my grade book to Sr. Eileen. The parking lot is empty and the temperature is 105 degrees — Sure signs that summer has arrived. So long Xavier, until August that is!

Love,

ME

November, 1986

Dear Diary,

What a long day it's been! I would never have made it without my usual breakfast of FOLGERS and BURNED TOAST. As I was correcting homework during class (kind of hard to do with DONUTS and BASKIN ROBBINS on the mind!) I came across a blank paper. When I asked the student about it, she told me that she LEFT IT IN HER DAD'S CAR WHEN HE DROPPED HER OFF TO GO HUNTING IN WISCONSIN! Who do these girls think I am? I DESERVE A DAY OFF just for putting up with this — maybe I'll call in sick tomorrow with TEACHER'S RASH. So, being the generous person that I am, I assinged her the next 20 CHAPTERS TO READ AND OUTLINE BY TOMORROW. Ha! I love it! To think that while I'm sitting here at home watching THE SOUND OF MUSIC, listening to the ST. FRANCIS CHOIR, or even reading the READER'S DIGEST — there is a girl out there somewhere suffering because of my generosity! I'm looking forward to this weekend — on SATURDAY, my friends and I are going to slip on our BLUE ORTHOPEDIC SHOES and go have a game of ICE HOCKEY. Afterwards, we'll probably drive around in my HONDA and listen to KTAR for the best BARGAIN SHOPS to go to. Oh, I wish that it was NEW YEAR'S EVE and that I was in HAWAII instead of being stuck here in Phoenix. But enough of Dreamland — MOTHER ANGELICA just started. Until tomorrow!

August, 1986

Dear Diary,

I just got my 1986-87 Xavier Calendar in the mail today. I can't wait for school to start — it's so much more fun than summer! I'm so sick of waking up at noon every day with nothing to do; my biggest decision being what soap opera to watch! But next week the excitement starts! I get to go buy my books. And I see in the calendar that our first fire drill is coming — I sure missed those! And in two weeks, there's the first football game and the Back to School Dance. Then there's the first rally and mass. And school pictures — hope it doesn't rain that day! We have a Buck-A-Shorts Day in September too! But I don't know, I think I'll just wear my uniform — I really love it! Wow — the first quarter ends in October. But then there's Homecoming and Halloween! There's a Close Up trip in November — that would be fun. And then there's the Boutique and Thanksgiving Holiday! And in December, we get to "Deck the Halls" and buy candy canes from Santa's Speedy Service. And the Christmas Concert and Christmas Dance! (wonder if I'll have a boyfriend by then?!) And then there's the best part of school — Semester Exams!! But then we have to miss about two weeks of school for Christmas vacation. Hope I can handle it! And in January, there's the Basketball games to go to. And in February we get to buy carnations and suckers — oh yeah — and raffle tickets! Then there's the Valentine's Dance and the Father-Daughter Dance. And I can't miss the Disneyland trip. In March there's the Mother-Daughter Fashion Show and then the Talent Show. And Prom, St. Patrick's Day, and the Bazaar. And April — that means Spring Break!!! And May — hm — what happens in May? Could it be Graduation? I think it could!! And then it's three months of blissful summer! Three months of doing nothing! I can't wait!!!

SENIOR SWIM PARTY

August 20, 1986

Dear Diary,

This afternoon I went to the Senior Swim party at AnnMarie Herro's house! It was so fun listening to what everyone did over the summer, and to catch up on the love scene!! I just know that Senior year is gonna be a blast!!!

▲ Xavier Frosh know how to Get Down!!

September 5, 1986

Dear Diary,

Tonight was the Frosh Mixer — before dusk — can you believe it? It was a pretty exciting way to begin my social life at Xavier though!! I went there with butterflies in my stomach, because I just knew that no one would ask me to dance! But guess what? I was so wrong! (There's always a first time for everything!!) Now I have something REAL to worry about — The Christmas Dance!!

Love,
ME

▲ "Let's go ask that photographer to dance!"

▲ "Wish they could all be California Girls!!!"

▲ Julie Lieberman thinks these two have a very promising future.

Fall Sports Rally

September 9, 1986

Dear Diary,

Today was our first rally at Xavier. They introduced all the new sports teams! It made me proud to go to Xavier. Once again they held the annual spirit contest. But it wasn't the Seniors who won this year, but the spirited Sophomores!!! Then we all got to show our individual spirit by dancing to the music the D.J. played. My favorite song was "Mony, Mony!!"

Love,
ME

▲ "Hi! Mom!!!"

▲ I can't believe these guys!!!

▲ To the question of "Who wants to party?!" an unanimous "Me!" is yelled by this group of Seniors.

September 12, 1986

Dear Diary,

I was so psyched for the Back-to-School Dance! And once I got there, it was everything I expected it to be! I was totally scamming on this gorgeous guy, and before I knew what was happening, He came over and asked me to dance! Guess who the guy was! "Little Joe" from my old grade school! Boy has he changed over the summer! I hope he calls!

S.A.D.D. RALLY

October 2, 1986

Dear Diary,

Today was a very memorable day for me. Our school gathered together for a S.A.D.D. assembly which made me stop and think about how stupid and dangerous drinking and driving is!! Everyone listened so attentively that I knew that I wasn't the only one who thought this message was powerful. Bill Austin stirred the crowd, but when Kurt Bishop spoke, he made me realize how important students against drunk driving really is.

Love,
ME

▲ Liz Stuart poses for her many fans!!

October 19, 1986

Dear Diary,

Tonight was the opening of "The Teahouse of the August Moon." It was so good! It was the first time I went to one of the Brophy/Xavier plays, and I was so impressed! I had no idea that my classmates had so much talent. I wish that I had that much talent. Maybe I could join stage crew — or even try out for a small part in the Spring Musical — or maybe the Lead!!!

Bishop's Mass

October 10, 1986

Dear Diary,

Today we celebrated a very special mass with Bishop Thomas O'Brien as our guest. The mass was Xavier's second of the year. I think the students and faculty appreciated the Bishop's special attention — I know that I did. The Bishop gave Bibles to each of the new lectors. Many of my friends participated in the mass. They looked so important! Maybe next year I can be in the mass. And (this is so cool!), the Bishop gave us a free day for later in the year! I'm sure not going to protest!!

November 7, 1986

Dear Diary,

I just got back from one of the most unusual nights of my life! I thought that I was going to attend another ordinary homecoming dance; I was wrong. The Brophy gym had transformed itself into a faraway spot in the jungles of the Amazon where warriors and explorers had gathered for an Amazon Adventure. Although the costumes and decorations were quite eyecatching, I think Homecoming King and Queen Troy Mussleman and Lisa Sullivan stole the show.

▲ "Will the real Nancy Jorgenson please step forward?"

October 31, 1986

Dear Diary,

When I woke up this morning, I thought "Hey what's today?" I knew it was an important day, but I've just been so spacy lately that I couldn't remember. So I put on my skirt and went to school feeling very confused! As I pulled into the parking lot, I thought I was seeing things — I mean, I realize that Xavierites dress kind of strange, but as letters and fruits?! But heh, maybe it's the new fashion. Maybe I'll try it next week!!!

Love,
ME

October, 31, 1986

Dear Diary,

Another day, another dance. This time it was the Halloween Mixer! It was so hot! My friends and I all dressed in costume, and I don't think anyone knew who we were! There was this one guy (dressed as a surfer) who wanted to know who I was, but I wouldn't tell him! I love being mysterious!!!

▲ Ms. Nordemeyer held the program together so well!

December 10, 1986

Dear Diary,

Tonight was the Christmas Concert. I was so nervous! The thought of doing it in front of the parents was bad enough — but then they told us we had to do it for the whole school! Scary!! But actually it wasn't that bad, and I think everyone liked it. I guess that all the after school practicing was worth it!

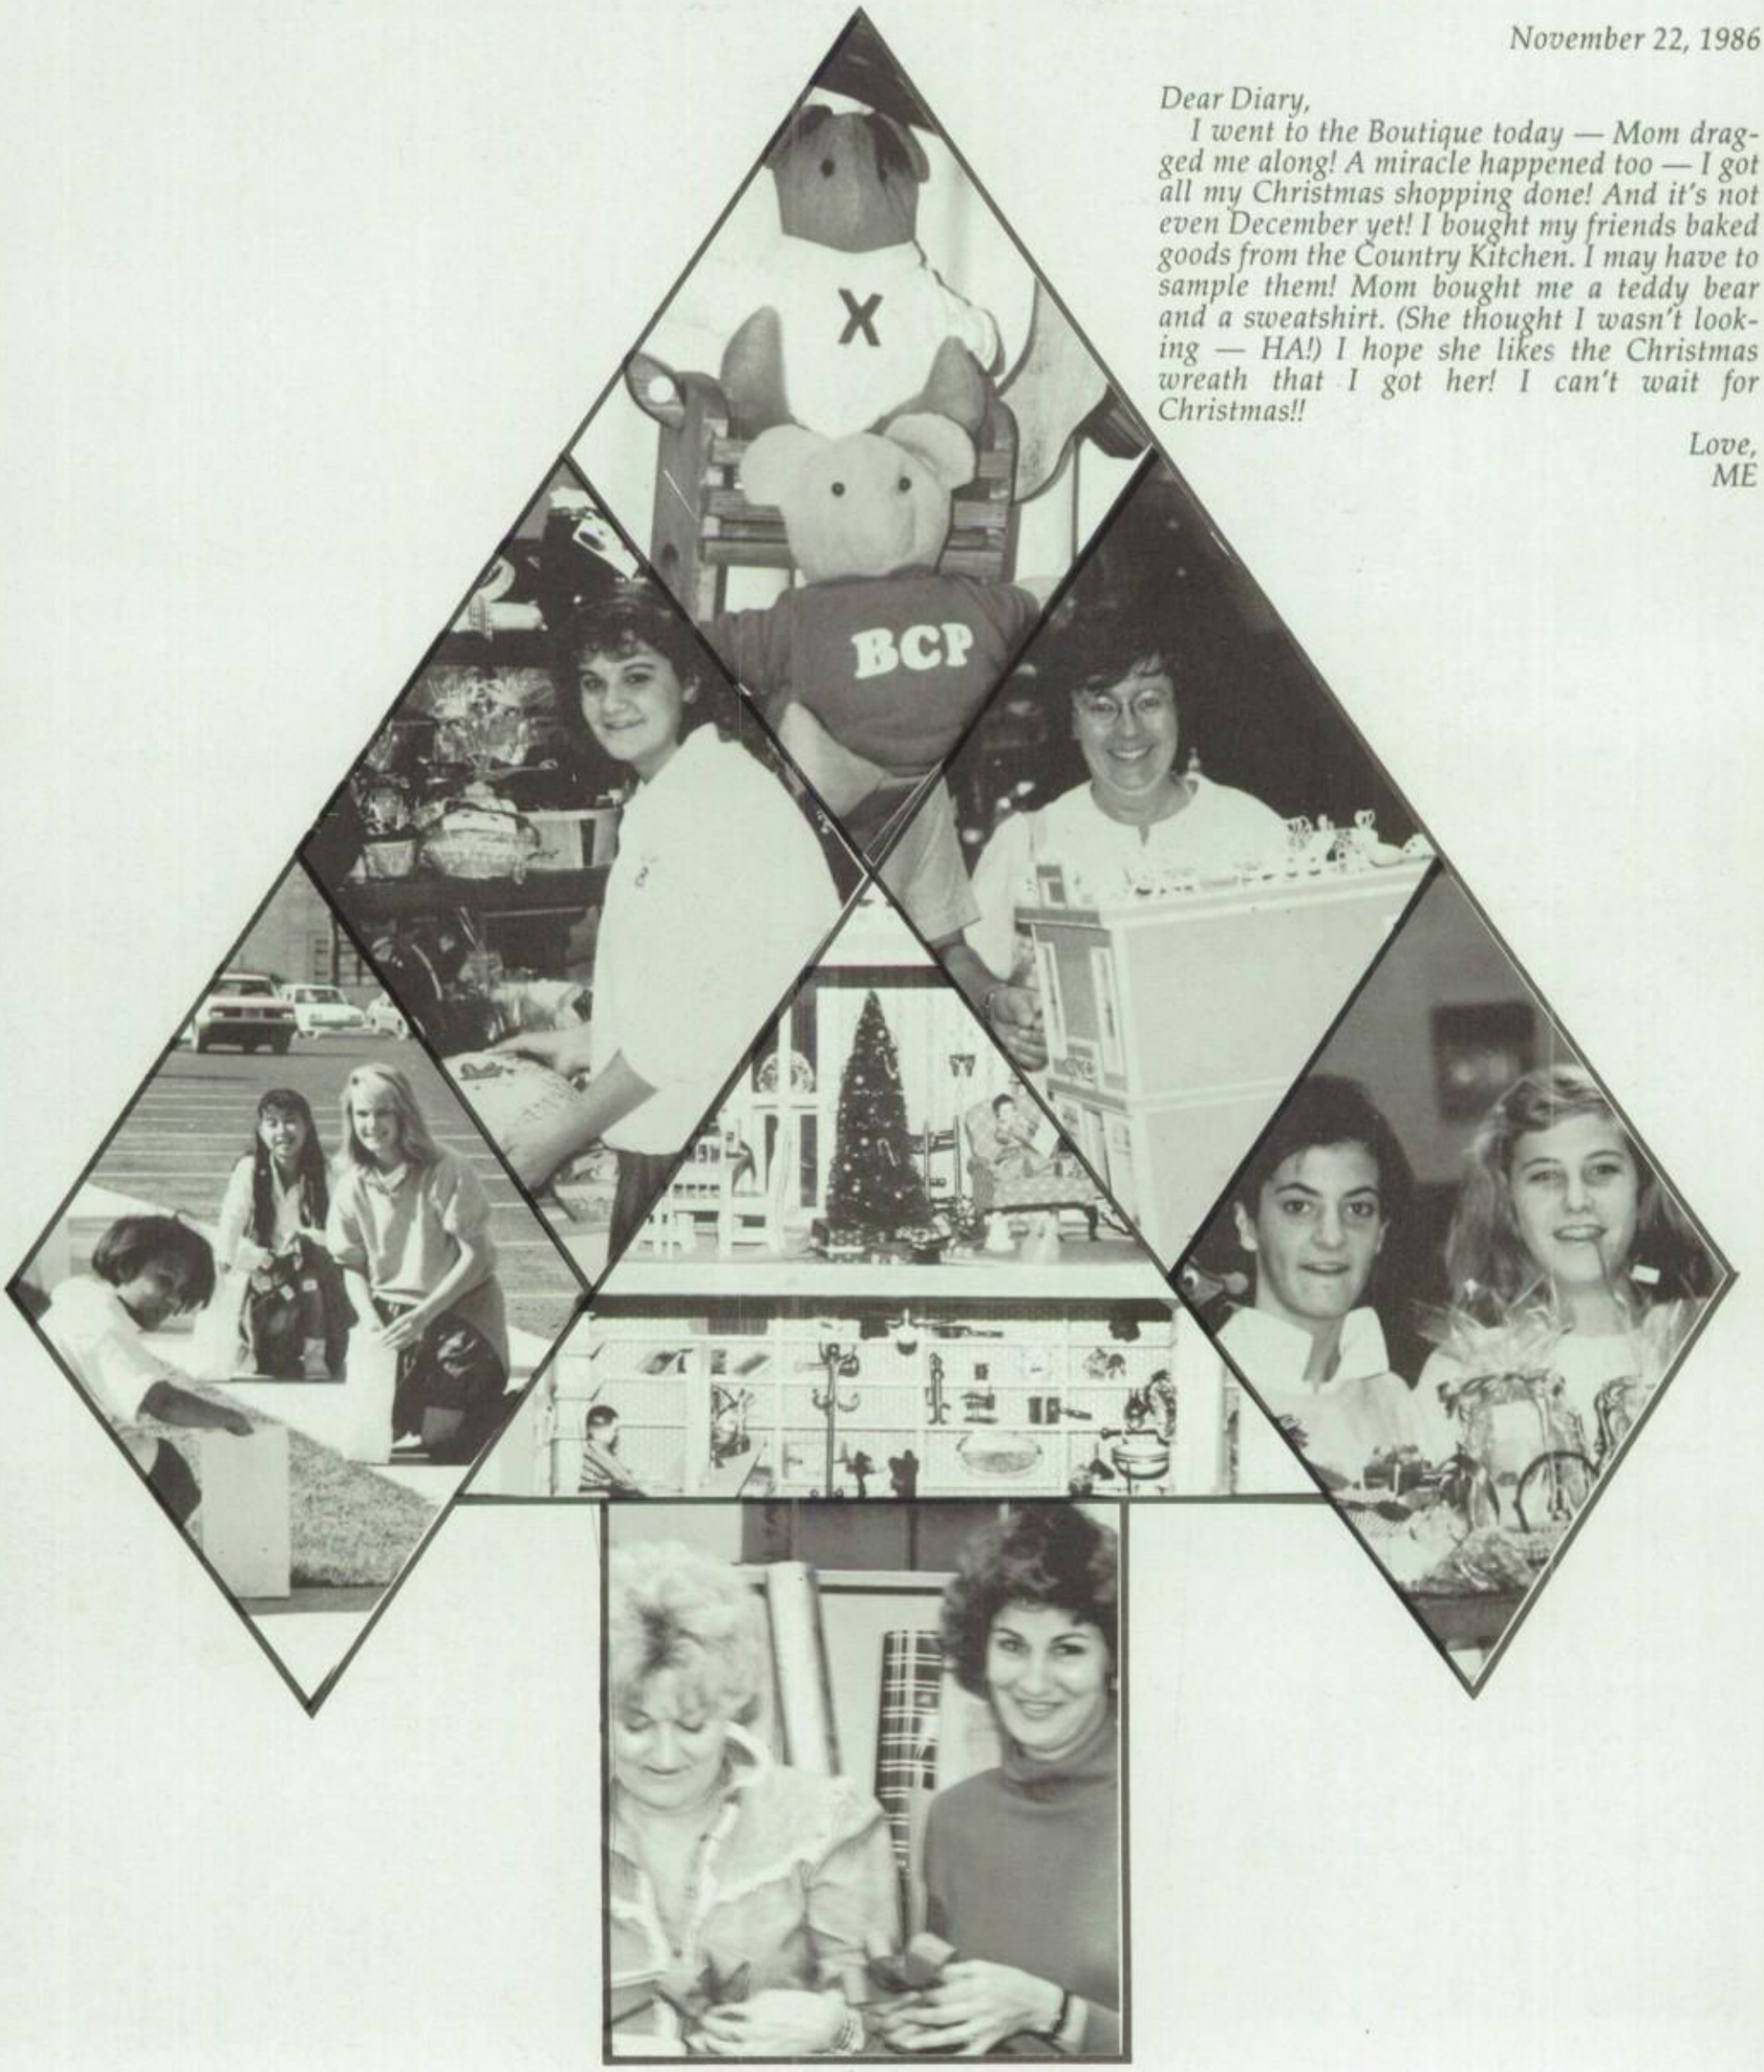
XAVIER BOUTIQUE



November 22, 1986

Dear Diary,

I went to the Boutique today — Mom dragged me along! A miracle happened too — I got all my Christmas shopping done! And it's not even December yet! I bought my friends baked goods from the Country Kitchen. I may have to sample them! Mom bought me a teddy bear and a sweatshirt. (She thought I wasn't looking — HA!) I hope she likes the Christmas wreath that I got her! I can't wait for Christmas!!

December 14, 1986

Dear Diary,

What a time I had! Everyone was dressed so nicely — I actually fell in love with my date all over again!! (He looked so hot!) We got our picture taken by Duke photography, so next time he's in his normal grubby jeans, I'll just whip out the picture! We danced until about midnight, then we went on to a couple of parties. When he took me home at 2:00 AM (Mom was being generous), he kissed me for the first time. If only I had a picture of that!!!

Fourth Period

Dear Diary,

I'm so hungry!! And there's a whole hour before lunch! (Can I survive that long?!) I should have eaten something at break — then maybe my stomach wouldn't sound like there's an earthquake nearby! In first period we tried to decide where to go to lunch, but couldn't even reach a compromise. Jan wants to eat at Arby's or Munch-a-Bagle, Lisa wants to go to Taco Bell, Shannon wants to go for Chinese and frozen yogurt, Marsha wants pizza, Carrie wants a slurpee and candy, Jill wants to eat on campus, and I want McDonald's! (the best scammin' place — not to mention great cheeseburgers) I only have five dollars though, so I'll have to limit my pig-out! I hope we can decide where to go!! Oh my gosh — there's the bell!! Let me out of here — I gotta eat!!!

Dear Diary,

I'm so excited! We have a four and a half day weekend — no school Friday or Monday, and only till 11:30 on Thursday!! I'm not real sure why we have the days off, but who am I to question such a trivial matter as that! I'm not real sure what to do though! I might go skiing with friends, or I could stay and just relax in the sun and party! Also, John asked me out for Friday night and I don't want to miss that! (chance of a lifetime) So I guess I'll just have to go skiing next weekend! It's another long weekend! What's Xavier trying to do to us?! It's driving me nuts!!

Dear Diary,

Now thdt it's Spring Break, I thought I'd finally have time to watch my favorite programs on T.V. I was wrong! Last night, I went into the living room to watch T.V., but my parents were watching the news and wouldn't let me touch the remote control! I had nothing else to do, so I stayed in there and watched the news with them. As I watched, I realized that I knew absolutely nothing that was going on in the world around me — except maybe for the fact that Easter was yesterday. That's pretty much true for most of the kids I know. All we're concerned with is what we're gonna do on the weekend, who's going out with whom, and the latest fashions. I mean, once in awhile I may think about AIDS, DWI, etc., but not too much. Probably because I'm secure just the way I am and don't want to let these social problems disrupt my life. But would they really disturb my life that much? Maybe I should learn more about them, because someday they could personally affect my life. It's probably better to have knowledge of these social evils and issues, and to find out how I feel about them, than to totally ignore them and hope they will just go away. I realize now that it's up to everyone to get rid of social problems — especially my generation. I can't believe I thought of all of this just from watching the news one time! I wonder what would happen if I read the paper!?!

Dear Diary,

Well, it's my last year at Xavier and I still haven't been in any clubs! I just don't have time — but then again, I don't think Colleges will like that attitude! I suppose I could be in the French Club, and maybe write an article or two for the X-Press — or maybe even a poem for the Pierian Spring! Wow! That would be three things! But then again since I like Art so much, I suppose I could join the Pub Club and maybe even help with the scenery in Stage Crew. And I just heard that the Social Actions Club is looking for more members! I guess I'll have to make the time for all these new activities — look out College — here I come!

Dear Diary,

This year I decided to submit a poem to Xavier's Literary Publication, the Pierian Spring. I didn't think it was good enough, but the officers and staff — Stacey Pawlowski, Lara Wood, Rosie Wass, Kathy Gagic, Julie Gates, Catherine Wolpert, Kirsten Kelly, Sheryl Horgeshimer, and Jennifer Addis thought it was really special. And the adviser, Mrs. Lee Russell, was very helpful too. I can't wait till it comes out so I can show all my friends!

Dear Diary,

I signed up for X-Press, Xavier's Newspaper, this year. I get to write all of the copy and even help put the layout together. We put and issue out every month — I can't wait to see the first issue!

Love,

Dear Diary,

I went to my first meeting of the Social Actions Club today — it was really interesting. Our goal is to promote awareness regarding the current social teachings and current issues. We're going to talk about all the current issues currently going on. We are currently encouraging people to join our group so that we can have serious discussions about current issues.

Dear Diary,

Boy — I'm exhausted! I just got back from our tournament in Massachusetts at Harvard — it was hard work, but alot of fun! I'm so happy for the whole gang — this year we've excelled in Lincoln-Douglas debate in both novice and senior divisions. — 'Gotta go now and start preparing for our next tournament!

Dear Diary,

Serving as a Eucharistic Minister this year was an honor. Fr. John provided for an excellent moderator & teacher. Our retreat was an enlightening experience & a good time to spend with friends. I really enjoyed the opportunity of serving the Xavier faculty and students. Fr. John deserves recognition for his time & effort that he contributed to us & the Xavier community.

Dear Diary,

I decided to join the French Club this year. The moderators, Mrs. Youseffi, Mrs. Kelly, and Ms. Klein, told me all about the things we're going to do this year. Not only do we get to watch movies, listen to music, and celebrate a Mass in French, but we also get to learn all about the history of France and Paris. It all sounds so interesting! And next week we're having a crepe party — I can't wait!

Dear Diary,

The Spanish Club was a lot of fun this year. Mrs. Whitlow, Mr. Benghue and Mrs. Nelson were our Moderators. It was nice getting to know them outside of the usual classroom setting! The club membership seems to have dropped since last year though! I'm gonna get all my friends to sign up for next year!! I better go work on it!

Dear Diary,

I'm sure glad I was a member of Xavier's Science Club this year. Since I'm so interested in science, I really enjoyed the guest speakers, meetings, activities, and trips that I took part in this year. Through the Science Club, I was able to further my understanding in Science. I also made some new friends including Mrs. Unale, the moderator. This is one club that I will join again next year.

COMPUTER

CLUB

October, 1986

Dear Diary,

Today I heard about a new club — the Computer Club. It's not really new — I've just never heard of it before. Basically, it's one club, but it breaks down into smaller groups like Computer Physics, the "Experimenters", and the Advanced Computer Club. There's even a Beginners Club — that one's for me. Maybe by next year I'll be good enough to be in Advanced!

Dear Diary,

It's Tuesday again and I've just finished making another poster describing one of our schools's many activities. No activity is passed by without the club posting signs of it all over the campus. With the support of the officers — Veronica Giordian (President), Nancy Jorgenson (Art Consultant), Sarah Knoell (Activities Chairperson), and Lisa Legaspi (Secretary), we always manage to have a good time! Miss Kitty Whitlow deserves a big thanks for spending so much time with us & giving us original ideas.

Dear Diary, bayless parking lot and went dancing in a Rose bush - means nothing.

I just received my '86–'87 Calendar in the mail today. At first I was bummed at the thought of going back to school again, but then I got to thinking — I've needed to get in shape after a whole summer of loafing about, and what better way to do it then to try out for one of Xavier's many teams!?! The Fall Sports tryouts begin in a few weeks, but I don't know which team I want to be on the most! There are so many to choose from — Volleyball, Badminton, Swimming, Golf, and Cross-Country! I wonder if I have time to be on all of them? In the Spring I get to try out for Soccer, Softball, Basketball, Tennis, and Track — oh, where will I find the time? Oh well, I won't worry about that yet — right now I'd better go pull on my sweats and start doing some jumping jacks! Bong (beer) I didnt do that did i? Like I really remember Oh well? I better end this up soon.. but its Love, all 3 classes - this year Me I hope we have some next year - Summer school Uggh - Time comins to cal wit h you - Okay - Just kiddins - (not really) but I'm glad we're buds and I hope we have more fun as Juniors - is it possible?

Mr. Bengal will miss you so much!!

Well K.I.T. this summer - dont scam too much - good luck driving the Cheeoke - nice spelling huh? Happy Earth's sweet Id. Dont break a Nail !! Luv ya lots, Monica :)

Dear Diary,

This season has come to an end, but it's been unbelievable! We took state again, that makes it the seventh state championship in a row! As always, we worked well together as a team. The most valuable player was Heidi Gilbert who came first in state. This makes it the third time a set of sisters has won state. Lisa Carriell took third in state and was voted most consistent player; and freshman Page Oeser was most spirited player! Time to tee off for now! I can't wait for next season!!

Dear Diary,

Our annual Ad Drive began this week at school. Last year I bought just the Yearbook, — not an ad. But this year I think I'm going to buy an ad instead. I know they're kind of expensive, but to think that it will be printed up and then I can keep it forever — I think that'a a pretty good deal. I can put last year's Christmas Dance picture in and the pictures from Jill's surprise party! (She'll kill me.) I just hope that Mom will let me use most of the space — she wants to put her business card in. She says it's great advertisement because tons of people will see it, and I guess she's right, but I still want it all to myself! Maybe I'll suggest buying two!

Mom and Dad — Thanx for everything. You've made it all possible. I love you!

*To:Jen and buttheads:
Along with winding paths of life, we meet with many friends — who share with us the pleasures, and the happiness life sends — But those whose friendships will never fail, whose hearts are always true — these are the friends we cherish most, wonderful friends like you!

*To:Doug:
It's impossible to write everything, but I know you understand. Thank you for entering my life. You're the "best" best friend ever. We've made it thru some traumatic times, but managed to have our fun along the way. I love you! . . . Bob McKenzie

Once upon a time there was a girl who went to Xavier and her name was Whitney but most people only knew her as "that tall skinny girl". You know the one — she had many great friends, she thoroughly enjoyed parties, and she did not have a car. Yeah, that's the one! Well, she just wanted to let you all know that the memories she has shared with her friends have meant a lot. So, just to name a few, thanks: Power Lines, B.K., Traci A's, golf, Ashton's dog with K. & K., X-mas, the lake & river, Macker, V.V., finding a date, and gossip! KA, KB, KC, SOD, TM, & the gang.

-Monty Python "Quest for the Holy Grail"

First, for my Mommy and Daddy
For my sister, my lifelong ally in addition to being the only well-read TV addict I know of and a cardinal lover of D.Z.
To Hurl M.E. for defense against the masses--subjugation of the gods to ambrosia whilst feasting upon ice cream and owning all the red properties AND railroads. (sometimes I do this--and then I wonder why)
To NMM, VM, LL, MH, TbN,SL, JL and especially David Kurtz and Mike Ahearn, without whom mocking would not have been possible.
To Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Benson, Fr. Renna, Mr. Haughn, and Mr. Heim--all excellent teachers.
For my screaming yellow friend Shelby, Sara S., Lisa L., and Kathleen of Oceanside, a very old friend.
For Becky B., David S.,Axel B., and especially Mark S. for a Crimson summer '86 that kept that old place from falling from grace.
And finally, I raise a glass with certain reverence for the passage of shapeless skirts, blue polos, socks, lockers, applications, the walk to BCP, debate trips, Tower runs, Biltmore Haagen-Dazs, Friday afternoons, proms [maybe not all that much reverence]....and all those people I've just gotten used to.

I love you all.

SARA

OOOOOOOHHHHH you are so big, so absolutely HUGE.

Oh well, then it was Chris you showed him me in French I, I was like Oh (hahaha) he's cute Sheresa — (in my mind I'm all what is she thinking? haha J/k) But at your house it was like do you like Chris, Monica? Well I thought you liked Chris, Sheresha? Oh well look what happened? Dave — what a nipple head!! Then there was Prom —!!! you and Sticky —— scamming on Heath- you scum. poor Mick That was fun I wish we could of took ya for a spin in the limo — ← Dave and Katie together — really nice? Nice manners Well we can't for- get da valley ho — that was fun — I wish I could have stayed with Kate, that ugly girl at 14... really fair huh? Life sucks when your with her — you feel like shit... but that's how I was feeling... probably lookin too... what a God Awful Mess I've never been so bum- med, I really didn't know why — just one of those moods I guess? LEARN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN JUST MAKING YOURSELF UP AND MAKING YOURSELF BEAUTIFUL.

There's a lot more to beauty than lipstick and eyeshadow. True beauty comes from within.

It comes from feeling terrific about yourself. From knowing you're bringing out the best in yourself.

With Mary Kay you'll learn a total skin care system based on products that all work together to make your skin glow.

You'll learn how Mary Kay can bring out your best features to truly express your individuality.

You'll learn beauty doesn't mean covering your face with makeup. It means uncovering who you are.

Kites can be replaced; pilots can't

Kite flying is fun whether the pilot is a youngster, teenager or adult. Be careful. Check for power lines before you fly. Always fly in an open area — well away from power lines. Call your electric utility if your kite gets caught on a power line. Don't try to get it down yourself. Remember, kites can be replaced — pilots can't.

Times have changed,
Haven't we all?
From young and short
To grown and tall.

From changing diapers
When they were wet,
To buying prom dresses
For the Jet-Set.

From crawling on all fours
all over the rug,
To dropping the top
On your convertible Bug.

From a short puggy person
With a cute round face,
To a tall, thin knockout,
With bumps in the right place.

From show and tell
On your first preschool day,
To preparing for law school,
With no time left to play.

We wish you luck in the future
As you have had in the past.
Don't forget to smell the roses,
Because the years go by so fast!

All our love,

remember who we were who cares though remember wearing Anthony's gloves How about when you lusted after Jeff C. That lasted for awhile! Too bad nothing ever worked out. Then there was the one & only DAVE. Which you didn't tell me about until about a month after - BUT THAT'S OK! I'm not hurt or anything. How about the time you got left on the Mountain! fun fun. Then you liked Heath & that night → when I talked to Andy All Nite! ☺ we all went out that was fun Chad leaving & us going w/ Chris then you & me w/ Chris & Mike & them being total kamakazi driving. then there were always our illegal off campus lunches we are just such the REBELS its great! Then remember when we were ditching & Nobley drove by that was so fun then at Jay Mookes party & Dave Eich pouring BEER in my hair no problem. then losing each other. Over spring break the hotel was so much fun playing Quarters, Thrower, & just over all being gay Next year it is off to California for us! & Next year you & I are hitting the slopes! I want to see how big of a snow bunny you are. Remember when we were at ☺ & that guy was telling us not to BUY

Dear Diary,

This is the last time we're going to be writing in you for a LONG, LONG, time. You should feel honored that we chose you as our theme this year, Diary. We never would have thought, during those first few weeks in September, just how sick we would be of writing "Dear Diary," come February. No offense, Diary, but we can only take so many No-doze in one night without exceeding the recommended dosage — although I think we did anyway! Not to say that we didn't enjoy every minute of it — who wouldn't enjoy working in the Xavier parking lot until 7 P.M. to meet a deadline, only to discover that the Post Office closed at 5 P.M.? Now, isn't that special?! But seriously, Diary, You've been a never-ending source of . . . HAPPYness to us, and we'll never forget you — for as long as we can remember. Until next year,

Mary & Amy

The Editors would like to thank the many people who helped make this Yearbook possible. A special thanks goes to Sarah Knoell for brightening up the pages with her Gators. THANK YOU to the many teachers who supplied us with the much needed last-minute information; to those special Brophy guys who charge such bargain rates for their pictures, and to Mr. Earl Parks who made it possible for us to publish this Yearbook. A BIG thanks to our parents for putting up with our laughter and noise of typewriters in the middle of the night. And to the moderators — where would we be without you? Ms. Whitlow, thank you for the use of your room after school and during numerous lunches, and for your much appreciated ideas and advice. And Mr. Connors — little boys wouldn't be safe with us around without you there to warn them! Seriously, thank you for all your time and moral support you've given us. And last, but also most important, THANK YOU to the staff — this Yearbook wouldn't be here without you guys — you did a Great job. (Note: If an award was given for perfect attendance, FRESHMEN — you would definitely get it!)

"Dear Diary" was chosen as this year's theme because a diary is a book in which thoughts and memories are recorded, much like a Yearbook. We hope that you may find many happy memories recorded in this Yearbook and that you may remember them always.

tag along with you next year!! Just kiddin. I'm glad we got to be friends and I had a good time with you this year. Hope you have an Awesome Summer. See you at Tennis Camp!!!
Luv
Alicia

Theresa, Hello Chick!
Well kid this year is finally over. Thank God! I swear I'd never get thru this year but I did! Now we're juniors! Almost! Oh just a couple of easy exams to take and then we can call ourselves "juniors"! Think of how fun that is going to be next year. We won't even need to sneak off campus like we ~~do~~ sometimes did this year for lunch. I'm really glad we became friends this year. You really are a sweetheart! Remember Halloween! That seemed so long ago! That was such a blast. We need to do that again sometime this summer. (But not w the costumes AR! AR!) Well - I'll give you a call over the summer break! I'm sure we'll see each other at Xavier sometime! Luv Ya Always,
Kim

Theresa - You R SO sweet and I am SO I am friends w/ you! Hopefully next year we can be better friends. We have to party this summer. I will definately see you at summer school. Have a rad summer and give me a call sometime. (No more theology or Biology) — Have a great summer.

♡ Catherine

Sheresa,
I'm glad I've gotten to know you! Now I have a tennis partner. (who always kills me!) Well, have a great "sweet sixteen" summer. I hope we have fun at camp.

Luv ya,
Rachel Donelson

Sheresa,
I'm glad we've stayed friends thru 2 more year! Just think Juniors next year! We'll get to finally drive! Well at last you can! Hopefully the women will let me. Have a great Summer and Don't GET TOO TAN!

Have a great time in California! Think of me, in Texas! Yuk!
Bye! ♡ Robyn McGuire

SHEESH,,

Well has this been a great year or what?? Gosh we've had so much fun 2-gether I just dont know where to start. Golly Gee Wally!! I'm so glad we've gotten to be such good friends. Youre so sweet!! Even if U do live in a park! J/K!! This summer (June 23rd) when I get my license! Yowser Yowser!! I'll have to cruise on out there to get you!! Well go partying to celebrate your B-day K? Bud!! Skiing was so much fun! We had some great wipeouts! More than a few 2!! We didnt meet any hot guys but hey maybe next year! Next year were all gonna go up for a wkend- pile in 2 burban and head on up- that will be rad!! Play follow the leader and get stuck in a major blizzard- Oh Boy!! Sounds Groovy!! Thanx for taking those x's I loved it-!! Oh and have we been to some exciting dances together or what!! Christmas Dance - did we rage or what anyone for Gatorade - Kit Kat?? What a line → How bout going to look at some Indian art in 5th ave!! Darn the shops arent open- Cant forget Willy Nelson — I'm a cowboy- Now Prom that was a definite improvement!! I sure as heck never thought we'd all end up going - that was great!! Heath was hot!!! Still is but Im over the obsession → check out the memory - what a photo → Talk about capture the moment!! 16 Candles - Peach Melba - dancing - flip into the chimney. Zahn in the street - Kristen Likkos!! Gawd Awful Mess!!!!! To bad we didnt get to go A 4 a cruise in the volvo!! Hopefully next yrs K will be even better!!!!!! If I even ever get E!! this years pictures!!! NICE!! PASSION PUNCH Yeah thats right Spring Break - That was So much fun!! Swimming, laying out, 25¢, thumpers, (what an invention) dancing, protein the list goes on & on - Next year its definitely got to be Cal - Seamming on the Surfers in Mission - that would be rad!! Oh I forgot Bitsy's party - Good one Karen - Gain Some Composure - Rex on the trampoline!!! Oh and May 4th - that was so much fun - tackling Mary - chad left - running to BK!! Well were going to be big time Jrs. Oh Boy us BIG JUNIORS!!! Yes off campus lunch - LEGALLY - cruising, seamming - walking snorting - Halloween was great!! We have to do that again - Definitely this x you have to be in the game of hoops!! K!! You better write me this summer - I ♡ U - Have a great summer - Ya ♡ lots!

Sheresa-
I'm so glad we've become better friends this year. Call me this Summer ya' hear!:- Geometry, P.E. English too, I've had all these classes with you. Hope we're in some of the same classes next year. Call me this Summer ya hear!

Hope you like the poem. Usually I write one to rhyme with your name, but I couldn't think of anything to rhyme with "Sheresa"; so I hope the one above will please ya!:-

Seriously-
I'm glad to know you, and hope to get to know you better over the next 2 years. Have a Happy Summer!

♡Julie

Call me!!

Sheresa,
I am so glad we have become good friends! You are so fun to be with and you are such a sweetie and I'm glad we've gotten to know your better. You and me and Shelly are gonna have the best high school yrs together!
Luv,
Mel

SHERES,
OH MY GAWD!
